Election Battles Loom in All Wards

Filing in GC City
Races to End Today;
Clerk Also Opposed

Contests for all eight Granite City aldermanic posts subject to election in this year's April 1 municipal balloting had developed today as the city clerk's office prepared to shut off all petition filing at 5 p.m. today.

The filing period, determined by state election laws, opened on Dec. 23 and is to expire with the closing of City Clerk Homer "Cal" Pendleton's office today.

Candidate filings until this morning showed at least two candidates are seeking each of the eight aldermanic offices open to election in the city's seven wards. The election of right aldermen instead of seven results from recent redistricting which created a vacancy for the unexpired two-year term in Ward One.

Highlighting contests in the aldermanic race is a contest in Ward Two between two incumbents—Edmund Bartosiek and Paul Rutledge—a situation that also grows out of redistricting changes that placed Rutledge in Bartosiek's ward at a time when both of their regular terms expire.

Without a doubt, the political alignments in the city election race are expected to be drawn following the withdrawal deadline. Any of the candidates who have filed petitions may withdraw from the race through Saturday. While Pendleton said he does not plan to keep the clerk's office open for that purpose on Saturday, he will be available by phone for any last-minute withdrawals.

In addition to election of eight aldermen—seven for four-year terms and one for a two-year term—Granite City voters are to elect a mayor, a city clerk and a city treasurer in the April balloting.

Candidates for mayor in the regular April 1 election will depend upon outcome of a Feb. 11 primary election made necessary this year by a new state law requiring primaries in all communities where more than two candidates file for mayor. An early filing period for the mayor's election was held resulting in three candidates.

Seeking re-election is Mayor Donald Partney, opponent is Clyde Boyer, Third Ward Alderman, and Waldo E. Schellenger, a real estate broker. The two candidates receiving the highest number of votes will oppose one another in the April 1 election unless one of the three mayoralty candidates should receive more than 50% of the total vote cast in the primary.

Designate Polling Places
The law provides that in this event the candidate receiving more than half the vote would be declared elected as mayor in the primary, and there would be no mayor's election in April.

Because of the early date of the primary election, the Granite City council last week completed designation of polling places in the newly redistricted

Man Attacks Officer In Madison Station

A Granite City man who attacked a police officer in the Madison police station at 3:10 a.m. yesterday while protesting the arrest of two friends on fighting charges was arrested himself on four charges.

Madison police said they booked Louis R. Halliburton, 23, of 2612 Center street, on charges of interfering with a police officer, resisting arrest, destruction of city property and disobeying a police officer.

The charges were filed after Halliburton, who had followed police and two prisoners to police headquarters, attacked Patrolman Edward Gochen, drew Gochen to the floor, and tore the officer's jacket. Desk Officer Donald Beckley aided Gochen in subduing Halliburton, who later posted $100 cash bond pending a magistrate hearing.

The incident occurred after Gochen and other Madison officers arrested George McDonough, 22, St. Louis, and Corneilia Ybarra Jr., 21, of Apt. A, 1803 Fourth street, Madison, on charges of fighting at the rear of the car wash at 10th street and Madison avenue. Officers said Ybarra also became unruly while being booked and was charged with disobeying an officer in addition to fighting. McDonough was charged only with fighting.

Industrial Seminar To be Held Thursday

Future industrial patterns in the metropolitan area will be the topic of a seminar Thursday at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern.

Twenty-five professional and government groups will join in sponsoring the afternoon and evening program beginning at 4 p.m. in the St. Clair room of the University Center.

Specialists in industrial location and industrial development will discuss:

Where is industry now? What is industry like in the places in which it is found? Where will industry be in the immediate future? Why will it be in these locations in the immediate future? Where may it be by 1980?

What actions are the local agencies taking in an attempt to influence this locational pattern? Giving the welcome will be D. Reid Ross, executive vice-president of the St. Louis Regional Industrial Development Corp.

During the evening session the future of industrial patterns in the Illinois and Missouri portions of the region will be discussed by Andrew H. Baur, president, Industrial Properties Inc., and Charles McCaulin, industrial development supervisor, Illinois Power Co.

The seminar is open to the public. Reservations for the 6 p.m. dinner are required. Persons interested in attending may contact Ross at the RIDC office of Robert L. Kieppe at SIU-SW.

Cynthia Furtak, 8, Is Home from Hospital

Cynthia Furtak, 8½-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Furtak, 2541 Morrison road, and a third grade pupil at the Maryville school, has returned home from Cardinal Glennon Hospital, St. Louis, where she was a patient for a week while undergoing treatment for a concussion.

She was hurt Jan. 12 when she fell in the bathroom at home, striking her head on the tub. She was admitted at St. Elizabeth Hospital after the fall for x-rays and was later transferred to the St. Louis hospital.

Consumption of Water Poses Supply Problem

Until an effective means of reusing the same water on a large scale basis is found, together with development of treatment plants to handle water reusage, little can be done to relieve present methods of supplying water to match the ever-increasing consumption rate, according to Glen W. Thornburg, Granite City district manager for the East St. Louis and Interurban Water Co.

"Never will there be another drop more water on the earth than there is today and the use of water is going up tremendously," Thornburg told members of the Granite City Optimist Club at their luncheon meeting Thursday.

Speaking on the subject, "Water, Our Most Essential Product," the utility company official said, improved conservation practices are needed, plus development of water reusage techniques to remedy the situation.

Various methods of increasing water supply to meet consumption already have been discarded as unfeasible, he explained, including conversion of sea water, prohibitive due to cost of transportation to inland areas.

A plan by which icebergs would be towed from the north and melted, similarly was dismissed as financially unfeasible, the speaker said.

Increased telephone usage was met by instituting cheaper evening and weekend rates; gas utilities store and compress their product against heavy usage; and electric companies balance demands by various means, but no remedy yet has been found to increase water supply to consumers who double consumption during the summer months, Thornburg noted.

Mentioning that supplying water is the oldest public utility in the country, with the first system established in Boston in 1632, Thornburg said, only three public water systems existed 200 years later in 1832.

Within the next 48 years, however, the figure jumped to 2690, he pointed out. The initial filtration system was introduced in 1870 and, in 1908, bacteria control was started through chlorination. Other refinements were added later, including maintaining a steady pressure through water towers.

One of the primary difficulties in supplying present-day water needs is the small dimension of cast iron mains, installed years ago. The mains, with a 100-year life expectancy, are far too small to carry the volume needed today and are inadequate for supplying requirements of fire and pumping equipment, the official said.

"As people located around industrial areas at the turn of the century, water became scarcer and of poorer quality. Demands for water increased, and are still increasing," he explained. Research, refinements and improvements into the problems of water supply are being carried out daily by utility firms, he pointed out.

Thornburg entered the water field in July 1959 and was employed as assistant manager of an Alexandria, Va., utility company before coming here last July. Currently, he is serving as vice-chairman of the Uniwh District, Cahokia Mounds Boy Scout Council.

Carl Roach, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker at Thursday's meeting, held in the Rose Bowl restaurant. Thirty-eight attended, including a guest, Larry Williams of the Country Companies Insurance Firm.

He is described as being about 23, 5 feet, 5 inches tall, medium build, with a split in the front teeth, brown hair and wearing a blue jacket.

Another was at Dee's beauty shop, 2328 East 25th street, where there was a similar occurrence at the shop entrance. He was described as being 5 feet, 10 inches tall, of medium build, with dark brown hair and dark eyes and wearing a dark jacket and a maroon shirt.

Ethington's Unit Wins Commendation

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ethington, 2037 Bryan avenue, have received a commendation award from the commander, U. S. Naval Support Activity at DaNang, Vietnam, for their son, SN Glenn D. Ethington, for his performance of duty.

Ethington, who enlisted for four years in November 1962 and trained at Great Lakes, went overseas a first time for three months and returned home on leave after being stricken with hepatitis in January 1968. After recovery, he went to Vietnam in February 1968 and is expected to return home next month.

Technical Schools, Needs Studied by RIDC

A study to determine how close the region's vocational-technical programs mesh with the demands of the regional labor market has been launched by the Regional Industrial Development Corp., Dr. Delyte Morris, RIDC board chairman and president of Southern Illinois University, announced.

The study will be financed by a $10,000 grant divided equally by SIU, St. Louis city and county junior college district, St. Louis city board of education, St. Louis county special school district and the Missouri Department of education.

RIDC will survey every technical-vocational school in the bi-state, eight-county region to compile an inventory of all vocational training programs measuring the school's current enrollment skill and compare industry's demand for various skills against the number of graduates trained in each of these skills.

Dr. Morris pointed out that the survey will serve the regions vocational-technical training institutions by providing them with detailed curricula planning information on just where the job demands exist.

"This will allow a reallocation of resources if necessary," he said, "to provide the courses which will accomplish two goals—provide students with the skills needed to help them obtain good paying jobs and aid the community's economy by providing an adequate labor supply, especially in the critically needed skill areas."

GC Scalped By Kahoks But Beats No. 1 Team

GC's lost ground in the torrid Southwest Conference basketball race in bowing 61-45 at Collinsville Friday night when they scored to the heights at Quincy Saturday evening, topping the No. 1 team in Illinois 51-47.

It was only the second loss for Quincy, the Blue Devils having dropped a one-point decision to Moline while winning 15 games. GC is a respectable 14-4 despite giving away height to many of its foes.

Granite City and Alton are 5-2 in the league to the 6-0 mark of Edwardsville, which has lost to Quincy but is 14-1 overall. Quincy also has beaten Collinsville this year, but could not offset strong second and third quarters by the Warriors, who earned leads of 31-30 and 40-38 after falling behind 17-13 in the first period.

VanBuskirk Turns Tide
Gary Simpson paced GC's 26 points, but it was John VanBuskirk who made the difference in the late going. He hit a 25-foot jump shot with 20 seconds to go to erase 55-54 deficit.

With five seconds left, VanBuskirk cashed in both halves of a one-and-one free throw opportunity to give GC's a three-point lead. The visitors then allowed Quincy to score and cut the final margin to one point. A foul combined with a field goal could have proved disastrous.

Coch Donald Detering noted that in the last quarter Steve Harris, Jeff Boyles and Dave Melzer captured key rebounds, enabling Quincy to be limited to one shot in most of its scoring attempts.

Simpson hit 12 points and VanBuskirk six to account for all of the fourth-quarter Warrior points. VanBuskirk totaled 10, Harris 11, Melzer nine and Boyles, two.

Free Throw Skill Helpful

Each squad hit 39% from the free line. GC hit 82% to 73% in free throw accuracy, raising a 24-17 field goal advantage.

Detering noted, "We had to change our defense in the first quarter. They were tearing apart our 1-2-2 zone, but a 2-3 zone worked. Quincy used three different defenses, but we had three offensive patterns to match them."

"At Collinsville, our offense fell apart. Turnovers and missed shots were too numerous. In the last quarter alone we lost the ball eight times and missed four one-and-one foul shots."

One Too Many Fletchers
Even so, it was close. Behind by a big 16-7 margin after one period, the Warriors earned a 2-23 halftime deadlock and trailed only 38-37 after the third quarter.

Simpson tallied 16, Melzer 15, Harris and VanBuskirk six each and Boyles, two.

The decisive 1-8 difference in the fourth quarter was all Fletcher, his son, Mike, totaling a career-high 25 points, pined in 12 in the last quarter, including eight straight free throws. The 6-1 senior is primarily a ball control and feeding specialist.

Warrior Sophomores Win at Wood River

The Warrior sophomore basketball team upped its record to 6-5 Thursday evening at Wood River by winning 75-47.

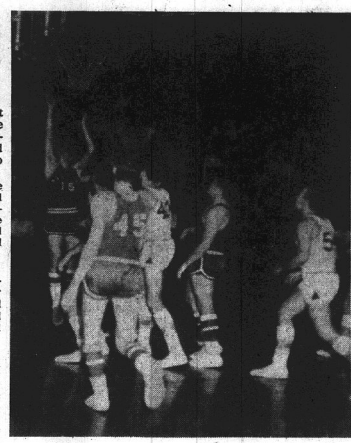

GC's was ahead at the end of the first quarter 29-8, and at the half 40-21 and had a 61-30 lead at the end of the third quarter.

Free Throw Skill Helpful

Each squad hit 39% from the free line. GC hit 82% to 73% in free throw accuracy, raising a 24-17 field goal advantage.

Detering noted, "We had to change our defense in the first

Double Dual Win by GC's

School Lunch Prices Cut For Low Income Families

The Granite City school district has completed plans to reduce lunch prices by 20 cents for children of low-income families, it was announced today.

The same basic guidelines also are to be placed in effect in Madison schools and at Quad-City parochial schools, in compliance with Amendment Eight to the National School Lunch Act. Effective date in the law is "prior to Feb. 1."

A study is still in progress in the Venice district.

It is considered likely that most of the approved applications will result in lunch prices of 20 cents for higher high and senior high school students and 15 cents for elementary pupils. Both prices are below the per-meal allowance in Aid to Dependent Children budgets, a spokesman noted.

Free lunches can be approved in special situations involving extreme hardship.

Nutrition, Cost Factors

The spokesman commented, "Recent national research has shown that many children not receiving necessary nutrition do not eat school lunches because of cost."

"Additional federal funds have been provided so that school districts can operate lunch programs without severe losses while making meals available free or at reduced prices to such children."

"Basically, families will be given consideration for free or reduced price lunches if they are presently receiving some form of public assistance or fall below specified income levels."

"Application forms for free or reduced price lunches will be available at every school. Only one application per family is necessary, and this must be returned to a school attended by any child in the family."

"All children are listed on one form. Parents will be notified individually of action taken on their application. Some delay may be encountered at first, since all applications will be verified through the public aid office."

Provision For Appeals

"An appeal procedure has been established for those appeals which may be denied," he noted.

Guidelines of Community Unit School District No. 9 (Granite City) will be as follows:

1. The building principal will determine which individual children are eligible for free or reduced price meals.

2. The school will provide, to patrons of the school who request them, forms on which to make application for consideration of eligibility of their children for free or reduced price meals.

Patrons will be notified individually of the acceptance or denial of their applications and, if the application is accepted, will be informed of the procedure to be followed by the child to receive such meals. If the application is denied, the patron will be informed of the name of the official to whom he may make an appeal for a review of the decision.

Punch Card System

3. In making collections from children who pay for their meals, and in accounting for the number of free or reduced price meals served, the following procedure will be observed in order that no other child in the school will be made aware, by such procedure, of the identity of the children receiving free or reduced price lunches.

Each child receiving a free or reduced price lunch will be issued a card monthly. Color of card will indicate free or reduced price and will bear student signature, identifying number, and spaces to be punched daily by cafeteria cashier.

The same cards will be used by all student cafeteria workers.

These cards and daily cash payments will be the only media of exchange used in any school cafeteria.

4. The policy for determining eligibility and the procedure to be followed by patrons wishing to apply will be made known to all patrons of the district.

Confidential Procedure

5. The names of children determined to be eligible for free or reduced price meals will not be published, posted or announced in any manner.

6. Children receiving free or reduced price meals will NOT be required to sign a logbook of receiving such meals to:

a. Use a separate lunchroom or section of the lunchroom.

b. Go through a separate serving line.

c. Enter the lunchroom through a different entrance than is used by children who are paying the full price for meals.

d. Eat lunch at a different time from paying children.

e. Use a different medium of exchange in the lunchroom than is used by paying children.

f. Eat a different meal than is eaten by paying children.

Policy on Working For Lunch

g. Work for their meal as a condition to receive a lunch.

However, when possible and practicable, needy children, along with children who pay the full price of meals, may be given the opportunity to work in exchange for their lunches.

7. Children from families whose income level has qualified them for public assistance, such as Aid to Dependent Child, General Assistance, etc., or from families participating in the Food Stamp or Commodity Distribution programs, will be given consideration in the determination of children eligible to receive free or reduced price meals.

8. The school will use the following income scale in determining children eligible for free or reduced price meals:

Size of household and maximum net (take-home) income: one, $129; two, $182; three persons, $212; four, $259; five, $228; six, $337; seven, $375; eight, $414; nine, $451; and ten, $490.

To obtain the maximum income limit for families in excess of 10 persons, add $25 per person to the maximum allowable amount for a family of 10.

Federal Reimbursement

The spokesman noted that, after experience in the program indicates its cost, school districts will submit letters justifying an additional 20-cent-per-pupil reimbursement for all pupils receiving free or reduced price lunches.

"This is in addition to the regular four-cent reimbursement, and the extra amount along with the reduced price paid will equal the regular price."

"There will undoubtedly be some regulation of the reimbursement to insure that no district makes a profit from the program."

Minimum Wage for Farm Labor Increases Feb. 1

Farmers are being reminded that the minimum wage in covered farm employment advances from $1.15 to $1.30 an hour on Feb. 1.

Overtime pay is not required but the minimum wage applies whether pay is by the hour or on a salary or piece-work basis.

Bonds Again Offered As Tax Refund Option

Savings bond director for Illinois, Clarence S. Schowski, today reminded taxpayers that the Department of the Treasury will once again offer them the opportunity of taking income tax refunds in U. S. savings bonds.

The savings option, introduced in 1953, is in addition to the two standard options of taking tax refunds in cash or applying them to next year's tax.

"When a taxpayer elects to take his refund in Series E Bonds," Schowski said, "his money goes to work immediately on two jobs. It begins to build his financial security. At the same time, it contributes to our country's economic strength. Those who elect the savings bond option join millions of Americans who are investing in their country's future in this way."

University Ambulance Service to Be Started

Southern Illinois University is in the process of buying an ambulance for the Southwestern campus. Operation of the ambulance will be a joint project of the Health Service and Security Office.

Margaret Parks, assistant to the SIU-SW medical director, said an ambulance is necessary "because the campus is somewhat isolated from the urban area and there are no hospital facilities in Edwardsville. It might mean the difference in saving a life."

Applicants to man the ambulance 24 hours a day are being accepted now, although it probably will not be available before April 1. It will be necessary to train those who are hired, Mrs. Parks said.

Applicants must be students at SIU-SW and eligible for a chauffeur's license. First-aid certificates or military medical training are desirable, but not necessary, since a course in first-aid will be offered during the training program. Applicants should write Gary Gunter at the Security Office.

Education, Public Assistance, Mental Health Spending to Rise

(State Chamber of Commerce Tax Department)

The Board of Higher Education's Master Plan for Illinois predicted there would be 14,000 pupils in our state four-year colleges and universities last year.

Enrollment was 128,000—a difference of 12,000.

The master plan projections did not anticipate the acceleration of the Vietnam War that has involved 56,000 young men from Illinois.

If they all came home, past experience shows 35% would attend colleges and universities and the projection would be low.

Reducing all higher education enrollment projections by 12,000 students, there still is a predicted 10% increase in enrollments.

State appropriations for higher education, exclusive of junior colleges, total approximately $750 million. A 10% increase in enrollment alone would call for a $75 million increase in state aid appropriations.

However, inflation, higher costs for programs and higher faculty salaries will tend to offset the increase to anticipate an increase of two or three times this amount, putting the total increase between $75 million and $225 million.

Following the same procedure, Illinois' prior college would have a 24% enrollment increase anticipated during the next two years.

There are 34 junior college districts in the state. Included are four scheduled to begin operation during 1969-70 and others making plans to begin classes in the near future.

It is anticipated that there will be an enrollment increase of 58%.

The present system for financing junior colleges calls for the state to pay about half the operating costs. The current state appropriation for junior college operating costs is $41 million.

The state's share is not 50% of operating costs, but closer to 40%.

If Illinois is serious about maintaining a 50% support level, the state would have to increase its appropriations by approximately $10 million to meet current costs.

The conservative estimate of a 24% enrollment increase would call for an additional $12 million to maintain a 50% support level and the greater expected enrollment increase would cost at least $20 million—and possibly substantially more.

The total state appropriations for public grade and high schools run to about $1 billion.

Why Mosquitoes Are Attracted

(American Association for the Advancement of Science)

Mosquitoes are attracted to warm-blooded animals by some kind of emanations. The nature of the emanation has been a subject of investigation and conjecture for many years, but only recently has a chemical component been identified as the attractant.

Entomologists from the research division of the Agricultural Research Service at Gainesville, Fla., report that the form of lactic acid present in sweat, and thus on the skin, is the substance that attracts female yellow fever mosquitoes (Aedes aegypti) to their human food supply.

Skin washings were collected from human arms by using an acetone vapor. After the acetone evaporated away, the residue remained traces of residue that strongly attracted female mosquitoes.

Chemical separation and analysis of the residue, followed by testing for attractive power, showed that lactic acid was the active principle. But carbon dioxide, which is also present in CO<sub>2</sub> alone or in purified air without lactic acid does not attract mosquitoes.

The well-known observation that mosquitoes are attracted to the more perspiring persons than to others has been correlated with the amount of lactic acid present on the skin.

This normally varies in amount in different persons, and may be in part influenced by personal cleanliness.

Since efficient insect-trapping programs require the use of a powerful attractant, lactic acid may prove to be the substance of choice for use in yellow fever mosquito eradication projects.

50 YEARS AGO

JANUARY 27, 1919

Darting every Wednesday and Saturday night at the Pastime Pleasure Club. A handsome young couple will be awarded to the winner of a "one-mile two-step."

Believing that hundreds of Madison county residents do not pay any personal property tax although owning automobiles, pianos, horses, cows and other items, a group met and decided to endeavor to furnish each tax assessor with a list of such residents. Officials of the county have been suffering from a lack of sufficient funds for a number of years.

The prospect of saloons going out of business July 1 has caused city council members to consider raising the tax on dogs to $5; placing a yearly license on grocery, dry goods, clothing and other stores; licensing ice cream parlors, soft drink establishments and fruit and candy stores; and petitioning the state to pass legislation enabling the city to increase the present corporation tax.

The passing of the saloons will mean a loss in yearly revenue in Granite City alone of $20,000 to $25,000.

Dry advocates insist that the city will save money by the closing of saloons. But there are hundreds of residents who cannot reconcile themselves to the thought of drinking a liquid they have hitherto regarded as only being fit to wash clothes with and for fish to swim in.

Reopening of Lakeside Spotlights Need for Major Airport in Illinois

Reopening of Lakeside Airport after three years expands the airport facilities available to Quad-City families and firms and brings to mind the extensive discussion during 1968 of a proposed second major metropolitan area airport.

Illinois legislators last year appropriated $50,000 to launch a study of airport feasibility. Trends indicate that a second airport to complement Lambert Field will be essential in the near future, and two key factors—proximity to St. Louis and avoidance of conflicting flight paths—indicate that Illinois is the preferable location.

How would seem to be an ideal time to make use of the study funds that are available and to intensify efforts to make a major Madison-St. Clair counties airport a reality.

In this connection, the Bi-State Development Agency may wish to give serious thought to seeking to become the regional airport authority, now that the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council and the Governmental Research Institute have endorsed Bi-State as the logical group to proceed. The St. Louis city government, owner of Lambert, could do much to expedite the proposal but unfortunately has not seen fit to do so in the past.

Big Potential for Beautification Program in the Quad-City Area

The local explanation of accomplishments of Pride, Inc. serving 16 cities in the Alton Lake area, spotlight the advantages of such a program could bring to the Quad-Cities—beautification of residential, business and industrial areas and a resulting increase in the pride people have in the community where they live, shop and work.

Garden clubs and other groups have been active here for some time in beautification efforts, and their wide knowledge was shown by the horticultural show held at the Wildcat Park ice skating rink pavilion in the early fall of 1968.

What is needed is for their work to be coordinated.

Land Use Plan Flexible Because Needs Change, New Possibilities Develop

(Excerpts from the newly-adopted Granite City Long-Range Development Plan)

A long-range development plan consists of both written proposals based on public development policy and of maps showing the future location of land, streets and highways, public buildings and other facilities.

The Plan for Granite City is a comprehensive guide for future growth and development. It is a plan that considers the total developmental aspects of the community, including the use of private and public lands, street design and location of public facilities.

It is long-range in nature, since it covers a period of two decades. The Plan is by necessity flexible, and is presented in a generalized manner. It can be so rigid, precise or inflexible as to ignore differing needs, changing conditions or new possibilities.

As conditions change, both new problems and opportunities will emerge, and the Plan may have to be modified to take advantage of the opportunities and to solve the problems.

A land use plan is the pre-determination of the proper use of land based on existing conditions and discernable alternatives—with sufficient latitude for adaptability to varying and changing conditions.

In general, the land use plan for Granite City indicates the type and intensity of land use and location of each in proper relationship to other uses. Such a plan is essential to the future design of streets and utilities and the proper placement of schools, parks and other community facilities.

Residential—The intent and purpose of residential areas is to provide the amenities of a pleasant environment in which to live.

Residential areas should be conveniently located but protected from heavy traffic, noise and other undesirable influences created by or associated with commercial and industrial districts.

Although the 1965 population of the present corporation (city) area of Granite City is expected to be approximately 31,000, the residential areas can accommodate nearly 100,000 people.

ordinated, with the attention of the entire public directed to the kind of individual effort which collectively could provide an improved appearance—with touches of beauty encountered at entrances to this community as well as within it, and no longer shortcomings eliminated or improved visually.

There is no lack of pride, skill or interest. If a way to organize it is found, there is no limit to what can be accomplished.

Fischer SIU Vice-Chairman, Heading Other Important Regional Programs

Selection of Harold R. Fischer of Granite City as vice-chairman of the Southern Illinois University board of trustees, on which he has served 15 years, is a high honor for him and this community.

The university is one of the major institutions of higher learning in the nation, and its local campus is playing an increasingly vital role in the Illinois-Missouri metropolitan area.

As board chairman of the First Granite City National Bank, Fischer has increased time for civic duties and putting it to good use; his current responsibilities also include the chairmanship of both the Tri-City Regional Port District and the Illinois Metro-East Industrial Development Corporation. He is a member of a panel of five distinguished citizens selecting federal civil service employees for special recognition in March.

This community is fortunate to have such individuals as Fischer and Henry D. Karandjoff, board chairman of the Trust and Savings Bank and American National Bank. Both have always been extremely active in community service, and since assuming fewer day-to-day business duties, have made the public the beneficiary of their voluntary activities.

Abolish the Irresponsible Public Aid Declaration Plan Before It Takes Effect

As State Auditor Michael J. Iovleff says, Illinois Congressmen should at the very least postpone implementation of a new federal plan which would "simplify" public aid procedures by taking personal declarations of need at face value.

Virtual elimination of the checking of welfare applications would be so absurd that it could wreck the finances of state governments already facing a difficult revenue outlook. This is pretty obvious, but a directive requiring just such an irresponsible approach will go into effect July 1 unless some action to the contrary is taken.

Madison Acting to End Littering

It is not surprising that Madison city officials are receiving complaints from residents about throw-away papers littering yards, sidewalks, streets and parking areas. There has been a rash of such practices in the Quad-Cities in recent months, with unsightly material left to blow about or become soggy and gradually deteriorate.

We wish Madison officers success in their actions to halt the unsightly nuisance. Maybe some way could be found for those who don't want their property treated like a dumping ground to notify distributors to skip them in the future.

It is patriotic to pay taxes, but many a man is blue because the rising cost of living bleeds him white and keeps him in the red.

Further Interpretations of Age Law

The Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions have issued further interpretations of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act.

This Act prohibits arbitrary age discrimination in employment with regard to persons from 40 to 65 years old.

The new interpretations, effective immediately, include:

1. The law authorized involuntary retirement irrespective of age if such retirement is pursuant to the terms of a bona fide retirement or pension plan.

2. The law authorized involuntary retirement of employees under age 65 who are not participants in the employer's retirement or pension program.

3. Discriminatory activities committed within the geographic areas covered by the law are illegal even when the activities are related to employment outside these areas.

4. It is considered discriminatory for an employer to specify that he will hire only persons receiving old-age Social Security insurance benefits.

5. An employer who pays an employee on a non-employment basis for services rendered is not intended to be affected by the Act.

6. An employer is not required to provide older workers with the same pension, retirement or insurance benefits he provides to younger workers, provided that any differential between them is in accordance with the terms of a bona fide benefit plan.

7. Use of a validated employment test is not, in itself, a violation of the Act. When such tests are used as the sole tool for hiring, however, they will be carefully scrutinized by the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions.

8. The primary reason for the increase in this category will be the expansion of school district facilities.

Recreational—The anticipated recreational land use will be substantially less than that proposed by the 1967 plan for 1980. This is due to the highly developed nature of Granite City and the prohibitive cost of purchasing undeveloped land for parks.

Almost all parks were sited outside the Granite City corporate limits where land is substantially less developed and somewhat less expensive.

Next: Northern and western areas.

Less Than 2% of Men Lack Jobs: 78 Million People Are Working

(Bureau of Labor Statistics)

Employment continued to rise in December as the unemployment rate remained at 2.3% for men and 2.5% for women.

Unemployment rates declined slightly for adult men, married men, Negroes and full-time workers, although the overall unemployment rate, 2.3%, was unchanged over the month.

The jobless rate for workers covered under state unemployment insurance programs was 2.0%, down from 2.1% in November. The non-white rate dropped more sharply than that for whites in 1968. It fell from 7.4% in 1967 to 6.7% in 1968, to 6.1% in 1969. The white rate declined from 3.4% to 3.2%.

For 1968 as a whole, unemployment rates for all workers averaged 3.8%, the lowest annual rate since the Korean war period.

Non-farm payroll employment rose 460,000 to a record 70 million. The December increase was 265,000 more than seasonally expected and represented the third consecutive month of substantial gains.

In the last three months, non-farm payroll employment has risen 600,000 (seasonally adjusted).

About 30,000 of the December increase was due to the entry of new workers who were off payrolls in November because of strikes.

Average hourly earnings rose 1% in December to $2.93 for men and 1.5% for women.

Weekly earnings averaged $12.50 in 1968, a gain of $1.61 (6.6%) from 1967. The rise was due to increases in both the workweek and hourly earnings, which reached 33 in 1968.

Substantial increases in average weekly earnings also occurred in contract construction ($8.42), finance, insurance and real estate ($6.28), mining ($6.39) and trade ($4.27).

The proportion of working time lost through strikes in 1968 was the highest since 1939. A preliminary estimate put the loss at 0.27% of all working time, compared with 0.25% in 1967 and 0.50% in 1966.

The number of stoppages beginning in 1968 was 4,550, an increase of 17% over the 1967 total and the largest number since 1953.

Stoppages in 1968, however, involved fewer workers than in 1967. 2.6 million workers as against 2.9 million.

Records show 33 stoppages beginning in 1968 which involved 10,000 workers or more. These accounted for somewhat more than two-fifths of the total of 47 million man-days of idleness and almost two-fifths of the 2.6 million strike-idled workers.

The largest stoppage at the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.—involved 250,000 workers.

Other large strikes occurred in glass container manufacturing industry, 47,000 workers; the New York public schools, 47,000 workers; the Atlantic Gulf Coast longshore industry, October and December, 50,000 workers; and in bituminous coal, February-March strike, 58,000 workers, and October strike, 50,000 workers.

The civilian labor force reached 78.7 million in 1968, a group of 1.4 million over 1967. The 1968 rise was the second largest since 1946 but was about 200,000 below the record gain of 1967.

Unemployment rates edged down to 2.3% for men and 2.5% for women.

Continued expansion of heavy commercial is planned south of the CBD and along Illinois Route 162.

Heavy commercial is intended as a supplementary activity to the CBD, with warehousing, wholesaling and truck terminals being typical activities found in these districts.

Industrial—The proposed industrial land use districts are basically a consolidation of the existing pattern.

Industrial districts were established in order to prevent the uncontrolled environmental conflict between residential and industrial land uses, and to provide areas of expansion for existing industry.

Governmental and institutional—This land use category consists primarily of the Army Depot, schools, local government offices, community health facilities and fraternal organizations.

The primary reason for the increase in this category will be the expansion of school district facilities.

Recreational—The anticipated recreational land use will be substantially less than that proposed by the 1967 plan for 1980. This is due to the highly developed nature of Granite City and the prohibitive cost of purchasing undeveloped land for parks.

Almost all parks were sited outside the Granite City corporate limits where land is substantially less developed and somewhat less expensive.

Next: Northern and western areas.

Q—Why did you use color on the 1940 tax form you mailed me?

A—Color is used to draw attention to the lines on the tax form that give people the most trouble. It is hoped that the number of errors made on tax returns will thereby be reduced.

Q—Last year, one of every nine income tax returns filed contained an error. How slow processing is the taxpayer was expecting a refund. It was delayed until the error could be corrected.

Q—Two color forms were sent to about 30 million taxpayers.

The balance of the forms mailed to taxpayers—and those available at banks, post offices and IRS offices—are printed in black ink.

Q—I mailed a check to a charity in December but it was not cashed until this January. Does the money I can't deduct it on my 1968 return?

A—You may take the deduction in the year you wrote and mailed the check. This means the money was deducted from your 1968 return.

Q—The label on the tax return I received in the mail is incorrect part and put in the proper information.

Return the corrected label with your return when you file your 1968 return. It will be properly identified and the number of corrections can be made on your tax account.

Q—What insurance premiums are deductible as a medical expense?

A—Premiums paid for policies providing medical care are deductible as a medical expense for taxpayers who itemize.

No deduction can be taken for life insurance premiums or for those paid to provide weekly benefits in case of disability.

Don't forget that medical insurance premiums should be handled differently than other medical expenses. Most medical expenses need to be reduced by 3% of the taxpayer's gross income before they can be deducted.

For medical insurance premiums, however, one half of this cost up to a maximum of $500 may be deducted without regard to the 3% rule. The excess is then subject to the 3% rule. This is explained in the 1940 instructions.

Schellenger Assails Whispering Campaign

Waldo E. "Ernie" Schellenger, a candidate for mayor, today called on Granite City residents to challenge last-minute statements made against any one of the three mayor candidates in the remaining two weeks before the Feb. 11 primary election.

In a prepared statement, Schellenger said, "In every election, there are those who take delight in fabricating and passing along information about candidates they are working against. Some people fall for this type of gutter-sne campaigning by those who support candidates unworthy of public support."

"However, I believe the majority of our clear-minded citizens resent these attempts to destroy the reputation and character of a particular candidate by those people who actively participate in whispering campaigns."

"I feel we have a sufficient number of people in Granite City who understand that we are in desperate need of restoring dignity and honor to our city government. I believe these people will agree that there is no honor or dignity about a person who will become engaged in a last-minute whispering campaign to stampee a misinformed voter into their candidate's camp."

"Most people want to know the facts about all the candidates, but rightfully resent any sly remarks or cheap innuendoes about a candidate's qualifications."

"I promise my fellow candidates and the citizens that I will not become engaged in gutter politics in this election. I would not want to be elected mayor of Granite City if it meant that I had to stoop to unjustly damaging the reputation and character of one of my opponents."

"If I am to be a victor in this election, let it be because my qualifications are more in order. And if I am to lose, let it be because of last-minute stories that are completely untrue and unfounded."
